

GIFTS TO DISTRICT PERSONNEL

District personnel are discouraged from accepting gifts from students, parents, or members of the general public in recognition of duties performed pursuant to district employment.

Nothing in this policy shall prevent district personnel from accepting plaques and other awards from professional education associations in recognition of professional excellence.