Main Idea and Details in Paragraphs Worksheet

Instructions: Read each paragraph below. Circle the word or words that represent the main idea or topic of the sentence.

Then, underline any details that give you more information about the main idea.

- 1) The cat is playing in the snow. First, he jumps up and down as high as he can. Then, the cat rolls around in the snow. He seems to really enjoy the snow. Finally, he lays down and starts to lick the snow.
- 2) Paul is flying his kite. It is a blue kite with a red tail. The tail has several green bows hanging from it. On the body of the kite, there is a picture of a huge dragon. The kite can fly very high because it has a very long string. The kite soars high above the park.
- 3) We are making tea. First, we boil the water in the tea kettle. Then, we get out a tea bag. Next, we dunk the tea bag in the hot water. We let the tea steep for 4 minutes. Finally, we take the tea bag out and drink the tea. It is delicious.
- 4) The school cafeteria is a strange place. It always smells like pizza and lemonade even if we're having something else for lunch that day. It is also incredibly loud. Between the sounds of the kids talking and the food being prepared, you can't even hear yourself talk. Finally, the cafeteria has very old, dirty carpet that makes it look very gross. I don't like going to the cafeteria.
- 5) Why are your shoes in the middle of the living room? They are covered in mud and are getting the floor dirty? They are right in the middle of the path where everyone walks. They are likely to trip someone.
- 6) I have red, blue, and green blocks that we can build with. We can make a big tower or a small garage for our cars. We can build them high and knock them over or we can spread them out and make a city. There are a lot of possibilities when we play with blocks.
- 7) Grasshoppers, beetles, and caterpillars are all bugs. They crawl around on the ground and are smaller than most animals we see. Some people are scared of bugs, especially spiders. Other people collect bugs in jars. Lightning bugs are a fun bug to collect because they light up.
- 8) There are great big fluffy clouds in the sky today. Some look like giant butterflies. Others look like puffs of marshmallows. One cloud is dark and gloomy. That cloud looks like a rain cloud.
- 9) The farmers are busy picking cotton in their fields. They work hard to pull the cotton off of the plants and collect it in baskets. They drink water and wear hats to stay cool.
