COCISD Board of Trustees honored at the January meeting

In honor of January's School Board Recognition Month, each campus presented the COCISD Board of Trustees with gifts created by students and staff to show appreciation for their commitment and dedication, on Tuesday, Jan. 22nd.

Our school board members are locally elected volunteers who are required to attend training each year, as well as a multitude of meetings and planning sessions. They do all of this with no pay for their work. They are planting seeds of success in our students that will result in a fruitful future for the entire community.

"David's Law" mom speaks to students about cyberbullying

COHS and LJH students were quiet and attentive as Maurine Molak spoke to them about her son, David. They listened as she spoke about who he was, his dreams, his life. They saw photos of David with his family and friends. And they heard about the terrible effect cyberbullies had on him, to the point that he killed himself. It was a thought-provoking presentation that inspired students to be kind, to never use technology as a weapon, and to speak out against all bullying.

COHS & LJH band students perform at All-Region Concert

Several talented Coldspring-Oakhurst High School and Lincoln Junior High Band students made the All-Region Band this year. They attended a workshop and performed at the All-Region Band Concert hosted at Tarkington Middle School on Saturday, Jan. 19th. Congratulations to all of our All-Region Band members. Great job!
