Principal's Corner

How wonderful is that sunshine? Spring is here! Believe me, the adults at Cottonwood are just as happy as the students that the ice has melted off the playground and that the many days of indoor recess are behind us. With spring comes our Spring Conference Week next week. Please be sure to use this time with your child's teacher to celebrate their academic progress so far and learn ways to continue to help them reach their goals for the year. Teachers have asked me to remind parents that CW does not allow parents or guardians to request a teacher for their child for the following year. There are many things we take into consideration when creating classrooms for next year and therefore we do not take requests from parents. We all appreciate your cooperation in this area.

Be Prepared For Your Parent-Teacher Conference

- √ Note the correct date and time of your conference and please arrive on time.
- √ Please remember that each conference is just a half hour long and we must stick to this schedule.
- √ Write down questions that you would like to ask the teacher.
- √ Be willing to consider the teacher's point of view.
- √ Plan on both parents attending, if possible.
- √ Younger siblings should not attend conference. Students should not attend the conference unless the teacher has requested student participation.
- √ Please be sure to have your cell phone turned off.

Starts again after Spring Break

BEFORE SCHOOL LANGUAGE CLASS

Conference Week—Transportation Phone Calls

Due to the shortened school day and the change in our daily schedule next week, we will not be able to take transportation calls. We sent home a bright yellow transportation sheet with each student specifically for conference week (not the bright pink form you filled out at the beginning of school). Please be sure that we have your student's plan for next week on file. School dismisses all week at 12:10PM. Thank you.

April 15th—19th
PTSA will be sending a flyer home with specific times for each day.
Tuesday, April 16th:
