Local survivors honored for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

In honor of October's Breast Cancer Awareness Month, six local breast cancer survivors were given special recognition at the Trojan Homecoming Game on Friday, Oct. 12th.

COCISD Administrative Assistant Tracy Blair, Lincoln Junior High Teacher Stacey Ferguson, local community leader Alice Hines, COCISD Bus Driver Falvie Ivory, COCISD District Librarian Mary Seago (Stacey Ferguson's mom), and COCISD Custodian Bobbie Turner were named Honorary Captains of the Game and escorted to center field for the coin toss at Friday night's game. A video presentation displayed each lady's photo and a bit of her background, with the number of years she has been cancer-free and what she would say to someone who is going through cancer now.

It was truly an evening of inspiration and hope!

These courageous ladies endured the pain and heart-ache of cancer themselves, and now bring hope to others who face the same battle.

Lady Trojans Cross Country Team advances to Regional Meet

The Lady Trojans Cross Country Team has qualified for the Regional Cross Country Championships to be held in Huntsville on Monday, October 22nd.

Way to go Lady Trojans—good luck at Regionals!

Creating Opportunities

The vision of COCISD is Creating Opportunities for All!

Did you know?

- Statewide, 97% of students who take a CTE (Career & Technical Education) course graduate from high school, 48% go directly into the workforce, and 47% go on to post-secondary education. Coldspring-Oakhurst High School currently offers approximately 50 CTE courses, and more will be added when the new CTE wing is completed.
- Coldspring-Oakhurst High School's business classes run the Trojan Bank during lunch periods, which offers services such as savings accounts and small loans.

Theme Days to Bonfires—our 2018 Homecoming was great!

The 2018 Trojan Homecoming Week was one for the history books. From fun theme days, to candy crush grams delivered by the COHS Student Council, to an awesome bonfire, to the crowning of Keion Williams and Bethany McClendon as Homecoming King and Queen, to A Starry Night dance, it was a definitely a week to remember!
