

About Tennessee Schools for the Deaf

Tennessee Schools for the Deaf (TSD) is a district dedicated to Deaf education throughout the state of Tennessee and its three campuses are located in different regions of the state: Knoxville, Nashville, and Jackson. The Knoxville campus is the main campus and is the only campus that serves Deaf children fully from the age of 0 to 22 years old. The Nashville and Jackson campuses focus on serving K-6th grades. The district has taken on the full recognition of Bilingual Deaf Education and has begun with the process of the full adoption and implementation.

About the Internship

The internship is for the Summer of 2019. It takes the term of eight (8) weeks. The intern will assist with creating, designing, and reformatting quality instructional content. About Knoxville

TSD's Knoxville campus is located on a sprawling 99-acre location that is located less than ten minutes from downtown Knoxville. The campus itself offers a landscape view of the nature and a short distance to one of the state's most beautiful parks, Ijams Nature Center, where walks, hikes, and various activities can be enjoyed on lunch break or after work. Downtown Knoxville is a quaint area with a lot of character in its shops, restaurants, and views. The city of Knoxville is also conveniently located only 40 minutes from the Smoky Mountains, which offers a lot of opportunities for outdoor recreational activities on weekends.
