1. Due to the unique challenges faced by military families, the Department of Defense is offering Child and Youth Behavioral Military & Family Life Counseling (CYB-MFLC) Program services, a private and confidential non-medical counseling service-to-service members, families, children, and staff of the Randolph ISD.
2. The CYB-MFLC may support staff and work with students and families in the following ways:
 - Observe, participate and engage in activities with children and youth
 - Provide direct interaction with students
 - Model behavioral techniques and provide feedback
 - Suggest courses of age appropriate behavioral interventions to enhance coping and behavioral skills
 - Outreach to parents when they drop off or pick up their students or at family events
 - Available for parents to contact for guidance and support
 - Facilitate psycho-educational groups
 - Conduct training for staff and parents
 - Recommend referrals to military social services and other resources as needed
3. CYB-MFLCs may assist parents, teachers, staff, and students in the following ways:

Communication	Self-esteem, self-confidence
Resolving conflicts	Behavioral management techniques
Helping students deal with their feelings	Sibling/parental relationships
Bullying	Deployment and reintegration issues
4. The counselor may also work with students in settings such as field trips and other center, camp, or school sponsored activities.
5. The counselor is available to accommodate appointments and meetings/activities after hours and on weekends with advance notice.
6. At no time will the counselor meet individually with a Student without being in line of sight of a Randolph ISD employee or a parent/guardian.
7. The counselor may use only Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) approved materials for trainings, groups, and any other activities.
8. With the exception of mandatory state, federal, and military reporting requirements (i.e., domestic violence, child abuse, and duty-to-warn situations), as well as oversight review by DoD of the service you received should an adverse or harmful event occur, MFLC support is private and confidential to encourage the widest level of participation.
