

IDALA presents Language and Learning Saturday, March 2, 2019

Please join us for an inspirational and educational event

The International Dyslexia Association, Los Angeles Branch, presents a day of dynamic speakers and informative breakout sessions that will focus on the different dimensions of dyslexia and the issues surrounding them.

Keynote Speaker

Anita L. Archer, Ph.D.

Dr. Anita Archer serves as an educational consultant to state departments, county agencies, and school districts on explicit instruction and literacy instruction. She has taught elementary and middle school students and is the recipient of ten Outstanding Educator awards. Dr. Archer has served on the faculties of San Diego State University, the University of Washington, and the University of Oregon. She is internationally known for her presentations and publications on instructional procedures and literacy instruction and has co-authored numerous curriculum materials with Dr. Mary Gleason including the REWARDS reading and writing intervention programs (Voyager/Sopris). Dr. Archer wrote a textbook on explicit instruction with Dr. Charles Hughes entitled Explicit Instruction: Effective and Efficient Teaching (Guilford, 2011). She is providing training on Explicit Instruction in the United States, Canada, and Australia.
