

My name is Jennifer Sperber and I am very excited to adventure into kindergarten with all my students and their families. I have my B.A. in Psychology and my Masters in Early Education from the University of Phoenix. I have previously taught Kindergarten and First grade, Special Education for two years as well worked in schools with children ages 2-11 and been an In-Home behavior therapist for clients of all ages.

-Jennifer Sperber

I grew up in the San Fernando Valley, and attended Sylmar Magnet High school. I obtained my B.A. Of Arts with an emphasis in teaching general sciences for Elementary School at California State University of Northridge. I have taught grades as high as Jr. high to first grade and in between throughout the years.

-Uvirey Villegas

My name is Ms. Anahei Alvarez and I graduated from California State University Northridge receiving my degree in Child and Adolescent Development. My passions are animals, music and helping others succeed. With my ambition and optimism, I hope to make this a fun and great learning experience for all my students this school year.

-Anahei Alvarez

My name is Stephanie Arriaza, and I've been teaching for approximately 6 years. I majored in Social Science and minored in Psychology from Ashford University.

I enjoy mountain biking and attending live shows and concerts.

I'm eager to meet my incoming fifth graders and collaborating with the welcoming staff at Our Lady of Peace School.

-Stephanie Arriaza

As a Southern California native, Kevin Nguyen attended UC Irvine, where he also served as president of the school's Vietnamese Catholic community. Upon completing his undergraduate studies, he volunteered for a year through the Jesuit Volunteer Corps at Verbum Dei High School in South Los Angeles. He then went on to Loyola Marymount University, where he completed his Masters in Secondary Education and returned to teach high school English at Verbum Dei.

I am excited to join the OLP community this year!

The core of my educational philosophy can be summed up in four words: "Respect. Educate. Advocate. Lead."

-Kevin Nguyen