

Members of the Adult Residential Without Walls Program exercised their creativity at Painting with a Twist in Selden.

Everyone enjoyed the opportunity to socialize in the community while expressing themselves through their artwork. Our budding artists took home a wide range of new masterpieces they were proud to make themselves.