

January 2019 Parent Newsletter

The High School For Health Professions and Human Services

Principal, Robert A. Gentile

Dear Parents and Guardians:

Happy New Year and welcome back! I hope you had a pleasant winter recess with family and friends. I am confident that the new year will be a good one for students, families and school community. We are looking forward to a productive partnership with you to ensure our students can achieve their highest potential this new year. As partners, we share the responsibility for our children's success. We know a strong partnership with you will make a great difference in your child's education.

Our great HPHS staff feels privileged to be a part of this school family. We thank you for your support and look forward to working with your children this spring semester 2019. Please feel free to contact us with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Natasha Delgado

2019 Education Council Elections

Your Voice

Your District, Your City

Make a difference in your school community.
Run for an New York City Education Council!

New York City's Education Councils help create educational policies, provide input to the Chancellor, and promote student achievement.

The only experience you need is to be a parent of a New York City public school student.

You can impact how New York City public schools work for all the children in your community.
