Welcome to Salt Fork High School's newsletter!

Every week there will be multiple stories about the awesome things that Salt Fork High School is involved in.

Salt Fork High School has an amazing staff and students who do extraordinary things every day!

Salt Fork High School is full of opportunities! - Cassidy Chandler

Our School is full of Friday Night Football Spirit!- Niki Jones

Student of the Week:

Cassidy Chandler

Teacher of the Week:

Mr. Ford

Cassidy is a Sophomore and enjoys baking with her friends, cheerleading, and playing with her cats!

Mr. Ford is a Biology and AG teacher. He enjoys spending time with his family, especially when it comes to spoiling his grandkids.

Sport of the Week:

Salt Fork High School offers many opportunities for students to join sports. When students join a sport, they will create friendships and learn skills that they will use for the rest of their life.

Football :

The football team is off to a great start with their 3-0 record. I got the chance to talk to seniors, Gage Romack and Dylan Washkowiak, and this is what they had to say.

"We are playing well as a team at the moment. Our defense seems to be carrying us right now but we need to work on scoring more in the red zone." – Gage R.

"Our team has the ability to be the best to roll through (the area) in years. Our determination to be the best, will indefinitely make us the best." – Dylan W.

Club of the Week:

Salt Fork High School also offers many clubs that students can join. These clubs can be a way students create bonds without having to do a sport.

Arts and Crafts Club :

The Arts and Crafts Club was just recently started and is looking for more people to join!

The club involves everyone making crafts and also fundraising to help pay for the crafts. I met with the president, Nichole Busby, and here's her thoughts on the club.

"I believe the club will gradually grow into something big and will last for many years at Salt Fork High School." – Nichole B.

Homecoming

Homecoming is right around the corner!

Tickets are for sale during the lunch periods!

Weekly Challenge :

Be Kind

The staff and students at Salt Fork love to be challenged so here's to starting a new one.

Challenge – Find someone you've never talked to before and ask them three questions about themselves. You must then take a selfie with them and direct message it to me on Instagram @SFHS.Newsletter.

Prize – Whoever is randomly selected will receive 10 class cup points for their class!

Contact Info :

As you can tell, this Newsletter has just begun and has great potential for the future.

I would love to hear more ideas on what the public would like to see in these!
