Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy

This policy describes the means for carrying out designated Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements pursuant to ESSA Section 1116(c).

Each school served under this part shall jointly develop with, and distribute to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy, agreed on by such parents, that shall describe the means for carrying out the requirements of subsections (c) through (f). How are parents notified of the policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, provided in a language the parents can understand? How is the policy made available to the local community? How and when is the policy updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school (ESSA Section 1116[b][1])?

- Policy is distributed to parents at the annual Title I meeting
- Policy is available to the community through the Title I office at Centennial High School and on the Centennial High School Website
- Policy is revised annually and parents are given the opportunity to provide input at the annual Title I meeting

To involve parents in the Title I, Part A programs, the following practices have been established:

- An annual Title I parent meeting is held at Centennial High School to inform parents of Title 1 students of Title I requirements and parents' rights to be involved
- Notifications/invitations to parent meetings is provided through recorded calls and/or mailings

The school convenes an annual meeting to inform parents about Title I, Part A requirements and about the right of parents to be involved in the Title I, Part A program (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]). Add details about the annual meetings in the box below:

The Kern High School District (KHSD) is committed to ensuring equal, fair, and meaningful access to employment and education services.
