Old Agenda Items

- School Initiatives

Members reviewed School Initiatives including Standard Student Attire(SSA) outerwear.

Discussions were had regarding the popularity and acceptance of hooded pullover type SSA, as well as the acceptance and availability of AVID binders provided by the Nevada Office of the Attorney General, also including types of binders that are acceptable. A review of the locker/backpack policy was made. Some students have voiced their concerns regarding not being able to get to the bus on time if they have to retrieve their backpack from a locker after school.

New Agenda Items

- Gibson HVAC Renovation

Principle Jaeger explained the ongoing HVAC renovation of Robert O. Gibson Middle School and the impact it may have on some classrooms for short periods of time. Jaeger explained that most work will be completed on a swing shift as to not distract students and staff, some classrooms will be under construction, and classes will have to be moved to other locations while the renovation is completed.

- CCSD Student Searches

Principle Jaeger explained the function and reasoning for Student Searches. This information can be found at CCSD.net. The discussion included how searches will be conducted as well as how a school is picked for the searches.
