Jackson County School District Named National Beta District of Distinction

Marianna, Florida – National Beta is proud to announce Jackson County School District as a 2018-2019 National District of Distinction. This award is given to those deserving districts who offer National Beta in all schools in their district, and who induct qualifying students in all eligible grades (4-12). Jackson County School District is one of only 20 districts to receive this award nationwide.

This national award speaks highly of Jackson County School District's commitment to academic excellence, leadership development and service involvement, and illustrates their dedication to preparing students for college, and career readiness. Jackson County's Beta students understand the importance of these qualities and exemplify the Beta motto, Let Us Lead by Serving Others.

Superintendent Larry Moore states, "It is encouraging to see the quality of our future leaders as they develop in this great organization."

Award recipients received a National Beta District of Distinction award to proudly display at their district office. In addition, National Beta District of Distinction principals received a plaque to display at their school.

About National Beta: National Beta is the largest independent, non-profit, educational youth organization in America. Since its beginnings in 1934, National Beta has been committed to providing students with a positive experience in a supportive manner in grades 4-12. The organization recognizes outstanding achievement, promotes character and social responsibility, encourages service involvement to school and community, and fosters leadership skills.
