

John Marshall Parent Booster Club Mission Statement

John Marshall Parent Booster Club is a nonprofit organization founded by parents to support the education, social life, and welfare of the John Marshall High School Community. We do this by volunteering our time to support events, by raising funds to meet the fiscal challenges of the school, and by advocating for students and parents. The organization is open to all Marshall parents, caregivers, teachers, administrators, and community members.

Volunteering

John Marshall Parent Booster Club will recruit and maintain a roster of volunteers who will support the school by working at events such as campus clean-up days, parent symposiums, sporting events, and other school-wide programs.

Fundraising

John Marshall Parent Booster Club will raise funds in a variety of ways including direct appeal, banner sales, grants, recycling, and JMHS merchandise sales to support the work of the school.

Membership

Parents and other members of the Marshall community join the John Marshall Booster Club by simply providing their name and contact information. Members are encouraged to attend monthly meetings to find out about volunteer opportunities and other ways to support the work of the group.
