

Evening Parent Drop-In Center

Speaker Series

The Evening Parent Drop-In Center is a safe place for parents to come and learn about mental health. Counselors are present to help parents navigate challenges that they and their children may face.

PROGRAM	DATE	TIME
CONSENT 101: This presentation will provide insight into issues facing students today, such as boundaries, harassment, sexting and the law. Strategies will be offered to parents on how to deal with the stress these issues may be causing their child.	April 24, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
GRIEF SPEAKS: Lisa Athan's presentation will touch on a variety of loss experiences in addition to death. This powerful message of hope, healing and thriving through loss, transition and adversity has been heard by thousands of teens and adults around the country.	April 30, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
BOX OUT BULLYING: This Parent Workshop is designed to give parents practical tools and useful skills to identify bullying, how to properly work with faculty members, and the importance of teaching their children about respect.	May 8, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
STEPHEN HILL: When speaking to parents, Stephen is sure to place a great deal of emphasis on substance abuse prevention through protection.	May 15, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Larry Thompson: Integrated Care Concepts Larry will speak on mindfulness and the 21st Century adolescent.	June 4, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
TIMOTHY SHOEMAKER: Tim will expose the seriousness of the threats facing today's teens. He explosively uncovers the critical secrets known to help protect them from substance abuse issues.	June 11, 2019	6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

ALL PROGRAMS WILL BE HELD AT BELLEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

PLEASE ENTER THROUGH DOOR #1