

Procurement Suggestions

We appreciate your generosity in donating any of the following items for our auction. Experiences that are rare or exclusive and not easily accessible to the general public such as vacation homes, travel experiences and sporting event tickets or suites inspire generous bidding. Please help us provide the auction item(s) that will increase the excitement and success of this year's event! Your partnership and generosity in making this a successful evening are appreciated.

Still Can't Decide What to Donate?

Help underwrite one of our Live Auction items. Or be on the lookout for even more ideas through our periodic auction newsletter, The Auction EAR.

Have a good idea that might be a good fit for the Live Auction? Please contact our Procurement Chair, Melissa Downey at auction@stfoa.org or melissa.downey@outlook.com.

Please Note: The Procurement Committee has the right to refuse items deemed unsellable. We are unable to accept clothing, shoes, and used items. Since most service items do not sell well, we highly encourage professional service firms to purchase an advertisement in our auction catalog in lieu of offering the service as a bid item, or, become an auction sponsor.
