

Gifted Required Summer Reading for American Literature -10th Grade Students

You are required to read The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald; it addresses the “American Dream.” This theme is a major undercurrent within many American literary works. F. Scott Fitzgerald wrote the novel in the 1920’s, and it has remained an important novel that addresses both themes in its time and of our own. You will have a test on The Great Gatsby in the first week of school. The test will be quote identification and essay. Passing the test without reading the book (not an on-line study guide) will be a struggle. If you have any questions, please email me at vanette_furney@gwinnett.k12.ga.us over the summer
