

One-Hour Parent Volunteer Opportunity!

When: Sunday, March 10th, 2019 from 3 – 4 PM
Where: Independence High School Library
Who: Parents of IHS Students and Community Members

What: Independence High School is undergoing the regular accreditation review cycle this year, which consists of a self-study of the operation of our school and a written improvement plan moving forward. The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), our accrediting commission, is sending six representatives to our school on March 10-13 to visit classrooms and meet with groups of students, staff, and parents. They wish to meet with interested parents at the date, time and location listed above. A light lunch with beverages will be served during this meeting.

No registration is needed - please come join us, we'd love to see you!
