Describe two-three things that you are interested in:

In what ways could you turn what you are interested in into a project?

Select ONE Global Context to link to your topic. Consider how the Global Context will give a main focus to your project. Why is the Global Context selected a right fit for your project?
(Please see the attached for global context information)

What will be the final product? (For example: a book, presentation, video—not to exceed seven minutes, a science experiment, etc.) Explain the details of your idea.
