

The Arts

The halls of Montour will be adorned with the creative spirit of young artists as the District is proud to announce its 9th Annual Art Contest open to all current Montour High School Students. Original artwork – including – paintings, drawings, ceramics, sculptures, and photographs – will be placed in the High School Art Gallery during the current school year. Students have the opportunity to submit up to five pieces of art, and up to three pieces may be selected. All student artwork will be judged and selected by a professional panel. For any interested students, a form is available on the MSD website for each piece being submitted. Selected pieces for the gallery will be rewarded with $50 stipends. The top piece will become the property of the Montour School District and proudly displayed.

The Theater Department is pleased to announce the annual musical will be “Footloose,” the story of a city boy who moves to a small town and clashes with grownups over a local law that prevents dancing. Naturally, he meets the most rebellious girl in town, the preacher’s daughter, and together they manage to change everything. We look forward to a wonderful production full of fun music and incredible dance moves. Expect to leap from your seats.

David E. Williams Middle School will be offering a production of “Annie Jr.” Adapted from the Tony Award-winning Best Musical, “Annie Jr.” features everyone’s favorite little redhead in her very first adventure. With a large ensemble cast and a fun musical score, “Annie Jr.” promises to delight.
