Volume 12, Issue 37

Our Motto: I will serve joyfully, lead confidently, and inspire others through my faith in Jesus.

Dear SASEAS families,

What a wonderful year we've had here at SASEAS Catholic School! I am so thankful to be surrounded by Christ-filled, positive people who value a top-notch Catholic education. On behalf of Father Cordier, Father Geiger, and our faculty and staff, THANK YOU for trusting us and supporting our mission. We are blessed in so many ways!

Congratulations to our 41 eighth graders (and their families!) as they graduate this Friday evening. The Mass begins at 7:00 p.m. at St. Andrew Church with awards and recognitions to follow in the gym. Thank you to this special group of young people who have achieved much during their time with us, and a special thank you to the families who will be leaving our school as their youngest or only child graduates. We so appreciate your trust and support. We pray that our graduates continue to seek a deep personal relationship with God in all that they do!

For next week's All-School Mass on Tuesday at our Seton campus, here are some reminders:

- See page two of this newsletter for specifics regarding bus transportation and a required form.
- 9:00 a.m. – All-School Mass begins

- Approximately 10:30 a.m. – 8th grade meets at the flagpole for prayer

Our annual school survey will be emailed soon. Be on the lookout for that as the School Advisory Council and I greatly value your feedback. This year, we are offering a $100 Visa gift card for one lucky family who completes the survey. All responses will be collected separately from the family name and will not be reported together.
