

Parents and Guardians of our K/2/4 Students,

Hope you are all having a wonderful start to the new year!

I wanted to share with all of you that I will be going out on maternity leave starting on February 4th, 2019, and will remain out for the rest of the school year.

I have been working hard with our wonderful Counseling Team to coordinate supports for all students who still need a high level of support in the coming months. If your student needs a higher level of ongoing supports, or at least opportunities for check-ins, I have been working to provide them a new support person. I will do my best to make introductions and support with transitions as needed.

There are still several people to support your child in school if they need help. I kindly ask that you be patient with our Counseling Team as they already have their own significant caseloads. With that said, I know they will do their best to meet the needs of students I have been supporting, or who will need support in the coming months.

As many of you know, I absolutely love working with our students, and will be sad to be apart from them in the coming months. However, I am confident that with the support of our awesome teachers and support staff, it will be a great rest of the year for all of our students.

As always, the school is here to help as best as we can... please communicate with your child's teacher about any needs they may have, or concerns or questions you may have.

I can be reached until February 1st at my Office number, 887-7636 extension 237. After that time, please communicate any concerns to your child's teacher, so that they may identify the appropriate support person to contact you regarding your child.

Wishing you and your students a wonderful rest of the semester!

Meghan Brady
School Counselor