None—all on the website/computer projector

Activities:

Mr. Dean presented Title I info/meetings

Mrs. Thompson presented survey results

Discuss and question/answers

Notes:

Survey results for k-12

*Reviewed and noted that more parents indicated knowledge about Title I and programming

Title I meetings have taken place in all buildings except Pyron which will take place May 24.

Title I tab on the website gives information about this council, Parent Right to Know, and all results.

Reminder to all staff to check junk mail frequently as not to miss correspondence from a parent

We will continue to work to inform parents of Title I and the jargon used.

Asked for suggestions on how to get more participation/use of the building parent resource centers

Continue to advertise within the classrooms

May want to add cell phone message as an option for survey question about contacting parents/families

Update PRCs if needed—What other materials do parents need?

Mr. Dean informed all of the Title I Parent and Family Engagement required budget spending.

**A lot of parents called with inability to attend this council due to spring sports and prior commitments

Meeting adjourned at 6:00PM
