4th Grade Frameworks for the Georgia Standards of Excellence in Social Studies

__________________________’s Profile    Student name: ______________

Key individual’s name

Portrait or Avatar

In 1776 we stood up for what we believed in. I was best known for my beliefs that:

__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________

Because of my beliefs, I (Tell how this individual’s beliefs and ideals influenced their actions and decisions):

__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________

I influenced the course of the American Revolution by _______________________

__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________