Discussion Agenda

1. Wayne Duggins presented the Board with K-8 Math Recommendations and a Curriculum Update. Dr. Martin stated he was appreciative of the work that Mr. Duggins and his group have done.
2. The Board was reminded of the upcoming joint meeting with the Surry Community College Board of Trustees and the Board of Commissioners at the Yadkin Center on March 11, 2019.
3. The Board reviewed the Fostering Minds Memorandum of Understanding. Sharon asked will there be any involvement with parents in any of the sessions. Amy Foster stated the first session has to be with the parent. Also, a form is sent home with the student letting the parents know what went on at the session. Amy also stated that they can always see parents after hours in our office.
4. Dr. Martin discussed with the Board our Battle of the Books Program. Dr. Martin discussed the letter he sent to the President of the NC School Media Association. He stated that in order to compete in the regional Battle of the Books, the school must have a licensed media coordinator on staff. He stated he has written a letter encouraging the Association to reconsider the decision to not allow these students to compete should they win the county contest as Starmount Middle does not currently have a licensed media coordinator.
5. The Board reviewed the March Schedule of Activities.

Comments

Dr. Martin congratulated the Yadkin Success Academy for being recognized at the PTEC Signature School of the Year. He stated he attended the ceremony and out of the 16-17 districts in the region, we were the only district to have an alternative school named to be a signature school. He stated each school puts together a video and that YSA was the last video and the crowd was touched that we had chosen an alternative school. He also stated he was honored to receive the Patriot Award and that it was very considerate of Jeff to nominate him.

Abbey Johnson stated that selected seniors will be taking the AEP test tomorrow. She also stated that Spring sports have started at Starmount High.

Erica Castillo-Duran informed the Board that their prom is coming up, and that during spring break several students are going to Charleston, SC.

Sam Crews state that the Forbush High School girls' basketball team has done well this year and they have a big game tomorrow night at Salisbury in the State playoffs. He invited everyone to come out and support the team.

Howard McKnight thanked everyone for being here this evening. He also congratulated Dr. Martin and thanked Wayne and his colleagues for their work. Lastly, he stated the next meeting would be on April 1, 2019.
