

Cougar Families,

I hope everyone is enjoying a wonderful week thus far!! It is only going to get better with the walkathon almost here! Here are a couple quick reminders!

October (Communicators) is here! October is the Month of Acceptance and Kindness.

School Attendance: I am sure everyone read the email from the attendance team! Huge thank you to all of the members for getting keeping our aspirations up and climbing higher! We will went around on Monday and dropped off freeze pops!

Progress Reports: Grades will be going home on Friday.

Medical Compliance letters: Parent will be receiving letters with progress reports if students are out of compliance. Please turn in the necessary forms and help us get to 100%

Sand Sculpture: Unfortunately, we are unable to enjoy the Beverly Art Walk sand sculpture. Monday, we donated the sand to support a local baseball program, Marionette Park Baseball. I would have loved to keep the sculpture up as long as possible, but the weather forecast didn't look good and wet sand would have been very difficult and heavy to move.

GoCPS is live! Apply from now until December 14th to have the chance of receiving an offer to a program of their choice. Take your time, this is not a first come first serve opportunity, applications will run until the 14th of December- do your research, attend open houses and become very comfortable with your decisions before submission. You can also make school choice changes up to the application deadline, and re-rank school choices up until February 1, 2019.
