Don't miss out on this exciting and educational performing arts workshop!

The Young Americans is making a stop in your hometown!

What can you look forward to? The Young Americans Performing Arts Workshop brings a combination of energy, teamwork, and confidence, using music as the tool. The specially-trained cast of 40+ college-aged performers provides a safe and exciting atmosphere for you to learn, create, and grow! This comprehensive performance workshop includes everything from vocal and dance to full stage performance.

After 3 days of performance instruction, it's show time!

This show is packed with choral, musical theatre, rock n' roll, and more! The Young Americans cast performs the first act and supports you as you take the stage for the second act. You'll be the one showcasing your talent and performing the show you've learned in the last three days.
