

Yeshiva Har Torah Thirtieth Annual Scholarship Dinner

Motzaei Shabbat, March 9, 2019 • ב' אדר ב' תשע"ט • 8:30 PM • Old Westbury Hebrew Congregation

Guests of Honor: Lisa and Eli Schilowitz

Lisa and Eli Schilowitz have demonstrated extraordinary leadership by immersing themselves in many, many aspects of our yeshiva. Lisa is in her third year as co-president of the P. T. A. and has brought additional vitality and programming to the culture at YHT. Eli, as a member of our Board of Directors and co-chair of our Education Committee, has injected fresh enthusiasm into countless projects around the school. Both Lisa and Eli's service is constant, selfless and genuine. Proofs of their commitment to the values that we hold dear are their special children, Aviva (7th grade), Sara (5th grade), and Izzy (incoming Nursery student).

Pillars of Jewish Education: Ilanit and Dr. Soleiman Rabanipour

Ilanit and Soleiman Rabanipour are the proud parents of Yeshiva Har Torah alumni, Jonathan (YHT '10), David (YHT '12), Aeton (YHT '15) and Tehilla (8th grade). The Rabanipours have been an integral part of the YHT Family for 17 years. Ilanit has served, with grace and warmth, in various capacities including class mother and lunch volunteer. Together, Ilanit and Soleiman have been staunch supporters of our school.

Tomchei Torah Award: Rachel and Revaz Chachanashvili (Chait)

Rachel and Revaz Chachanashvili are pillars of the Kew Gardens Hills and Georgian community. In their quiet way, they initiate and participate in countless chessed activities and are strong advocates on behalf of Jewish education. They have succeeded in passing down their middot tovot to their children, Michal, Leeya, and Abigail (8th grade). The Chachanashvilis serve as role models to all of us and are now in their final year as YHT parents, the perfect time to recognize them for their service and their support.

Faculty Award for Distinguished Educational Leadership: Rabbi Yisrael Silverman

Rabbi Yisrael Silverman has been a master educator for almost 45 years, the last twelve at YHT. He has implemented many innovative programs and contributed much to add to the warmth that is the trademark of YHT. He has established close relationships with many of our students and faculty. We feel privileged to pay tribute to Rabbi Silverman for a lifetime dedicated to chinuch.

Memorial Tribute: Mr. Harvey Kaylie, a"h

Several months ago, the YHT Family and the Jewish community at large lost Mr. Kaylie Harvey, a"h. Harvey, a"h, and his wife, Gloria, have been visionary leaders and staunch supporters of Yeshiva Har Torah for over a decade. Our Dinner will feature a special tribute to the legacy which Mr. and Mrs. Kaylie, and their entire family created at YHT, and which will continue for many generations.
