

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENT

Monday, January 14, 2019

Our Thought for the Day is:

The best preparation for tomorrow's work is to do your work as well as you can today.

Nobel Peace Prize winner Mother Teresa once said, "Peace begins with a smile." During the month of January, the students and staff of Hyde Park will be focusing on the theme of peace and unity. We will have themed announcements during PAWS and a special celebration at the end of the month in memory of holocaust victims. Please bring peace to our campus today with a simple smile.

On Saturday, January 12th, your panther band had several students audition for the 2019 CCSD Honor Band. I am proud to announce that we had three students selected: For the third year in a row, Grace Hwang was selected as the top flute player in the district. A newcomer to our band program and second year student, Erin Lee ranked 7th in the district; and for the second time, Miles Ray was selected to the top band, but this time ranked 2nd in the district for trumpet players. Congratulations to each of these students. We invite you to come and support them on February 21, 2019 at UNLV's Ham Hall. The performance begins at 7 p.m. and parking is free. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the band department. Thank you, Mr. Tyler.

Reminder, the School Geography Bee will be tomorrow after school in room 305. Expect to be there from 2:15pm - 3:30pm. You will receive a snack and certificate. Any questions, please see Ms. Weinstein in room 305.

Chess players, there will be a school wide chess tournament beginning on Wednesday, January 16th. If you're interested, please see Mr. Webster in room 301 ASAP!!!

Here is Mrs. Belknap with today's words of wisdom.
