

Dr. Jennifer Elder, FW Alum, Joins Somerville Eye Care Clinic

Audience: All

Dr. Jennifer Elder, daughter of County Mayor Rhea Taylor and his wife Phyllis, has joined Dr. Gregory Reeves at Somerville Eye Care Clinic. A graduate of Fayette-Ware High School, Dr. Elder is thrilled to be back in Fayette County to practice! She practices primary care optometry and has also worked extensively with patients with glaucoma, diabetes, dry eye syndrome, and cataracts. Welcome home, Dr. Elder!

SUMMER FUN at Fayette Ware High School

Audience: All

Summer Camp is fun! Come to Central Administration Building (CAB), located at 10425 Hwy 76 S., to sign up for summer camp today. The Summer Camp Program is open to middle school and high school students. Come alone, or even better bring a friend! Spend a week playing with robots and minicomputers, cooking up your favorite foods, designing the layout for your very own money-making business, or painting and drawing your masterpieces of art. Don't sit around the house and be bored, come to have FUN with us at SUMMER CAMP! The $25 registration fee covers your field trip to the Main Event and the Dixon Gallery and Gardens Museum. The Summer Camp dates are Monday, June 10th - Monday, June 17th from 9AM-3PM (excluding Saturday and Sunday). Transportation will be provided for the field trip on June 14th but will not be provided to and from camp daily. For more information on Summer Camp, click here.

Educators Represent FCPS at State Convening

Audience: All

Oakland Elementary pre-K teacher, Jermeka Bryant, and Teresa Franklin, a kindergarten teacher at Buckley-Carpenter, traveled to Lebanon, TN to represent Fayette County as peer reviewers. These educators were each responsible for scoring ten grade-level portfolios of their peers from districts across Tennessee. Their service is appreciated, especially since this work took place during the month of June!

UT Martin Kid College Soars with FCPS Educators

Audience: All

UT Martin Kid College was an amazing learning experience for elementary aged kids who wanted to learn and have adventures at the same time! Young learners rotated through several classes daily, a few of which were led by Fayette County Public School educators, to explore various topics such as reading, science, art, and facts about our state and nation. Up next-- UTM's Robotics Camp June 17-21 and June 24-28. Don't miss out!

Retired Fayette-Ware teacher, Cathy Stanz, gets crafty with art.

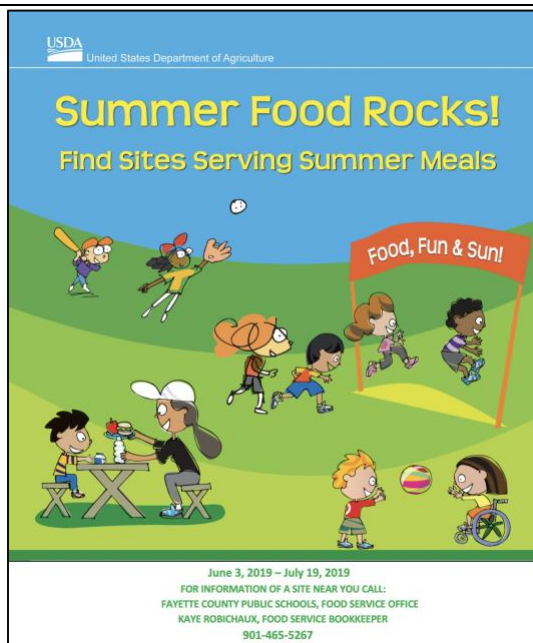

Megan Burnett, 5th grade teacher at Oakland, leads the way in literature and journaling.

Summer Feeding Bus

Audience: All

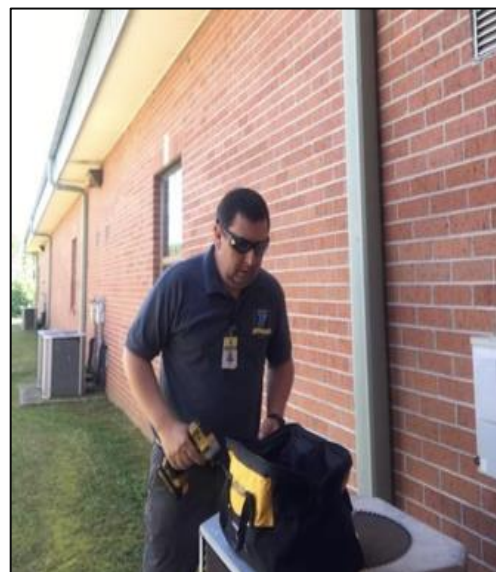

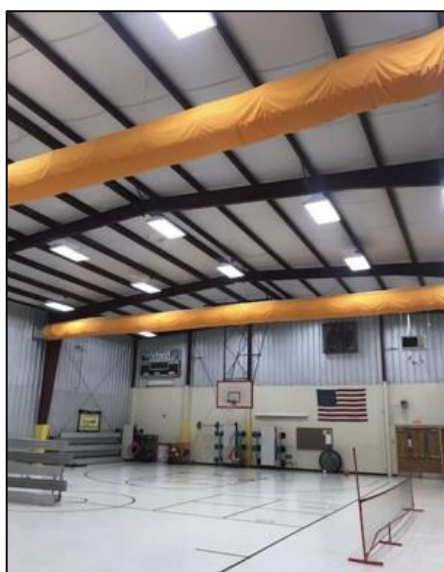

FCPS is proud to offer the Summer Feeding Bus again this year. The summer feeding program will run June 3 – July 19, 2019. For more information about a site near you, please contact Kaye Robichaux, Food Service Bookkeeper, at 901-465-5267.

Maintenance Ramps Up Effort During Summer

Audience: All

The kids may be out but the work continues for the Maintenance Department! With buildings empty, the time is right for repairs and upgrades to be made in many areas to keep all locations in top shape. This crew works hard all year round to ensure facilities are ready for students upon their return!

Wildcat Boys Hit the Court

Audience: All

Under the direction of new Head Coach Demarius Chearis, the Wildcat boys are already hitting the court! With new leadership inevitably comes change, and this team is taking it all in stride. Working together, they are embracing the motto “we over me”. The Wildcats will be participating in several upcoming camps during the month of June which will help them improve essential skills and develop more fully as a team.
