Dear Parents:

Today I, Catherine LaGalia, was the secretary for the day and it was so much fun! I had to do a lot of things for Mrs. Palmieri. She had me read to the Pre-K 3, Pre-K 4, and Kindergarten which was awesome. Mrs. Palmieri let me eat lunch with 2 of my friends which was fun. As the day went on, the things I did got more and more fun! She had me open the door for anyone who walked in which was a very interesting experience because it is so fascinating to see how to open the door for anybody.

I have to thank my mom and dad for bidding on this at the Gala last year and having me do this incredible thing. So, at the Gala on Saturday, make sure you bid on this so your child can have the same amazing experience that I had.

Sincerely,

Catherine LaGalia
