School Safety

- Safety is and always will be top priority: Feedback/Concerns are welcome!
- Completed two fire drills with some improvisation-went well overall but with some room for improvement, lockdown and evacuation coming-Several drills will be conducted throughout the year.
- District Trainings---Summer Admin Camp (lessons learned), Oct. 18 for Mr. Shamblen
- Grant awarded-Request for a glass partition as the door is entered to increase safety.

Curriculum Update

- Intervention Schedule---additional 5 minutes added here-Adds the equivalent of 2 school days throughout the year!
- Curriculum Night: September 6th, 2018 (6-7PM)
 - 6th: Gym, 7th: Media Center, 8th: Aux. Room, Shield: In classrooms
- NC Check-Ins---all students will take these for ELA and Math-All 3 grades at the end of each quarter (Q1-Q3).
- District Benchmarks-OGMS did not meet growth and received a "C" grade. Grade should be a "B" with the goal of achieving an "A" which is extremely challenging. All middle schools in the district received "C" or below.
- Professional Development: Formative Assessment and Intervention, Rigor and Relevance, iReady-Digital assessments to prepare for online testing.
- MTSS Implementation: Multi- Tiered System of Supports-State initiative to make sure all students are supported-Will take a couple years to fully implement.
- PBIS Module II-OGMS to be recognized for Green Ribbon Status by the state for implementation.

Fine Arts

- Chorus, Art, and Band are off to smooth starts and eager to prepare for performances

CTE

- Pre-assessments to measure growth for end of semester assessments-At beginning and end of semester.

 - Football will currently be played at OGHS, but our grass has greatly improved---we may return to OGMS
 - Results update Football 1-0 defeated NDMS, Softball 3-1
 - Football travelled to Chestnut Grove Middle for a scrimmage
 - Heat policy –Determined by the district

Celebrations

- Smooth start to the year, visits from the District Cabinet and Dr. Lipe
- Teacher of Year---Lindsey Hayek-Finalist for District Teacher of the Year Honors
- Facebook followers almost to 800
- Branding additions-Banners in office and hall

PTSO

- Met last week to begin planning fundraiser
- Giving teachers $100 of reimbursable spending
