KHS GIRLS WATERPOLO – AN INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Over the summer, our Girls Water Polo team (2nd Place OIA Champions) traveled to Japan to compete with some of the best teams there. In Osaka, they competed against Tezukayama HS, in Nara they played Heijo HS and in Kyoto they challenged Ohki HS. When the girls travelled to Tokyo, unbeknownst to them, they played against one of the best teams in Japan, Shumei Eiko HS. How good are they? Well put it this way, according to Coach Asa, the coach for Shumei Eiko HS is also the coach of the Japan Women's National Team!

As per Cougar custom, our water polo girls represented Kaiser very well. Coach Asa says, "The team learned a lot, saw a lot and ate a lot!"

The international stage does not end here. Starting today until August 5th, our team members will be playing against International teams at the 50th Annual Hawaiian Invitational Water Polo Tournament. Although they won't be playing as Kaiser, they are in the 16u, 18u and open divisions. Look out for 16u Anuenue, 18u Oahu Combo and Women's Open Oahu Combo. Please click on the link above for more information. GO LADY COUGARS!
