

Employment Opportunities

The American School of Yaoundé (ASOY) seeks talented, globally minded individuals who are interested in working with a community of learners. ASOY accepts applications throughout the year for any listed vacancies.

The faculty are hired through interviews held at recruitment fairs and via Skype.

Vacancies may be listed on the ASOY website, GRC, UNI and Search Associates recruitment agency (<https://www.searchassociates.com/>). Certified teachers with a minimum of two years teaching experience are requested to submit a letter of interest, résumé or cv, and supporting documentation (letters of recommendation) by email.

When applying, please reference the position and your name in the subject line.
