Figurative Language

Alliteration

is a repetition of a consonant sound in a sentence or a group of sentences.

Examples:
- Lurvy loves licking lemon lollipops
- Spiders spin sticky stuff

Hyperbole

is an exaggeration that couldn’t really happen in real life.

Examples:
- Wilbur cried a river of tears
- Avery was so hungry he could eat a horse!

Simile

is comparing two unlike things using the words “like” or “as”

Examples:
- Her hair was yellow like corn
- His fur was as dark as night

Metaphor

is comparing two unlike things by saying one thing is something else without using the words “like” or “as”

Examples:
- Fern is a ray of sunshine
- Templeton was a tornado ripping through the barn

Personification

is describing non-human things with human qualities.

Examples:
- The spider web danced in the sunlight.
- The corn stood tall in the field.

Onomatopoeia

is a word that imitates sound. It sounds like the word it is describing.

Examples:
- Boom, Buzz, Crash, Zip, Hiss, Pow
FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE

Directions: Create your own sentence for each type of figurative language.

Challenge: Make the topic of your sentence a character or setting in Charlotte's Web.

ALLITERATION

HYPERBOLE

SIMILE

METAPHOR

PERSONIFICATION

ONOMATOPOEIA