Dear Friends:

Each year, the generosity of Schechter Queens parents, alumni, grandparents, parents of alumni, faculty, staff and friends allows us to create exceptional opportunities and experiences for our students. While tuition supplies a strong financial base, philanthropy heightens the level of compassion, ambition and creativity that would not be possible through tuition alone. Schechter Queens welcomes your support to ensure that all students can benefit from a Schechter Queens education. We are proud of our ongoing quest for excellence in Secular and Judaic studies that helps to shape intellectually independent, creative and curious students, rooted in Torah and mitzvot.

As evidence of our rich dual curriculum, our students attend top Secular and Judaic high schools and universities, hold leadership positions in government, health care, law, engineering and the corporate world. Imbued with the teachings of a Schechter Queens education, they embrace their Judaism while thriving in the secular world.

Whether you are considering a gift to the Annual Fund that makes an immediate impact, an endowed gift that lasts for generations or a Major Gift allowing Schechter Queens to move forward with significant strategic initiatives, your contribution to Schechter Queens sustains our reputation for excellence. Together we can empower the next generation of Jewish leaders, learners, parents, and community members with the knowledge, tools and abilities to take on the challenges of the next decade.

We recognize that tzedakah, no matter the dollar amount, is a highly personal matter to which a great deal of thought is- and should be- devoted. It is also an extraordinarily meaningful way to become involved in the life and growth of an organization and a mission, in which you believe.

To make a credit card donation to the Annual Fund or the Endowment Fund, please click here and complete the Quick Donate option. To make a donation by check, click here. To learn more about our Major Gifts Campaign, click here.

For more information about Schechter Queens giving opportunities, please contact Paul Friedman at 718-591-9800 ext. 305, pfriedman@sssq.org, or any Annual Fund Committee member listed below. On behalf of our students, faculty and administration, thank you, in advance, for your generosity – and for helping sustain and advance the Schechter Queens legacy of Jewish continuity and academic achievement.

We thank you for making Schechter Queens a giving priority!
