B. Council Self-Evaluation

The Council believes that the efficiency and performance of the Council directly affects the efficiency and performance of the school. Therefore, the Council shall conduct an annual evaluation of its own efficiency and performance including its progress on its strategic plan.

 - ii. The evaluation shall be conducted using a formal written evaluation tool.
 - iii. Members shall evaluate the Council collectively and not individual Members.
2. Council self-evaluation forms shall be distributed in April. The Council may discuss the self-evaluation at the regular meeting in May or at a special meeting called for such a discussion. 4. Persons who wish to make requests, presentations, or proposals to the Council should direct any inquiry to the Head Administrator, who shall respond according to the following process:
 - i. The person shall provide written information to the Head Administrator at least two weeks prior to the regular meeting of the Council.
