

The Independent - Thursday, January 25, 2018 •

Community calendar

Sunday, March 11

PIE Foundation fundraiser

The Partnership for Inspired Education (PIE) Foundation will host its seventh annual dinner/theater/auction fundraiser featuring Drury Lane's production of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." A 2 p.m. matinee performance is followed by dinner, silent auction, and prize drawings. Proceeds serve to enhance student learning and education exploration in School Districts 4, 45, 48, and 88, including Addison Trail High School and Willowbrook High School.

Ongoing events

• ACA presents Young At Art show

Now through Feb. 2, the Addison Center for the Arts presents the District #4 Art exhibition at its gallery located adjacent to Addison Trail High School at 213 N. Lombard Road, Door #4. The "Young at Art" show is a compilation of artwork from eight different elementary schools in Addison. Each school selects approximately 25 works from students K-8, highlighting their talents learned throughout the year.