

Advisory Announcements 11/14/18

1. Chabot College is offering a new Dual Enrollment class on our campus beginning in January. The class will be Tuesdays & Thursdays, 3:35pm – 5:05pm. The class is Intro to Ethnic Studies – Which is an introduction to the historical and socio-cultural experiences of racial and ethnic groups in the U.S. Class will run 1/22/19 – 5/24/19. You can earn credits for taking this class! See Ms. Leary for registration paperwork and further information. There is a limited number of spaces – sign up today!!
2. Two new after school opportunities!
Hip-Hop Music Production Class: Have you ever wondered how hip-hop music is created? Learn how to create and record your own music including beats, hooks and spoken word poetry/rap, in this after-school club! Using beat machines and electronic instruments like synthesizers, we'll create and record our own musical ideas, work as a group to improve those ideas and release the original music for the world to hear! Meetings will be Mondays after school. Sign up in the library!!
Hip Hop and Salsa Dance: Learn a wide range of hip hop dance styles and choreography. Explore salsa dance with a modern twist, incorporating dance traditions from around the world. Meetings day to determined. Sign up in the library if you are interested!!
