Members of the Whitehouse Independent School District Board of Trustees officially named Mr. Josh Garred as the new Principal of Whitehouse High School during Wednesday's special board meeting. Mr. Garred will begin his role as Principal for WHS on June 4, 2018.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Christopher Moran commented, "Whitehouse High School is an incredible campus and Mr. Garred is a perfect fit, possessing both experience and genuine love for the Whitehouse community. The Board of Trustees and I expect great things under his leadership and we have the fullest confidence in his ability as an instructional leader and role model. His work at Whitehouse Jr. High supports our level of confidence in what can be accomplished under his leadership."

Mr. Garred has served as Principal of Whitehouse Junior High School since 2014. Garred earned his Master of Education in Educational Administration at the University of Texas at Tyler. Additionally, he holds a Bachelor of Behavioral Science from Hardin Simmons University. Garred has held various professional positions at James S. Hogg Middle School, Robert E. Lee High School, Abilene Wylie High School, Kaufman High School, and Ennis Junior High.

"I am extremely excited and thankful for this opportunity to move to Whitehouse High School. This community has been gracious to me and my family and I can't imagine a better place to work. I look forward to meeting with all staff members and begin building relationships as we move forward collaboratively in order to see every student reach their maximum potential. I am grateful to Dr. Moran and the Board of Trustees for their trust in my abilities to lead Whitehouse High School with passion and pride."

Mr. Garred and his wife Krystal are proud parents to four children, Ginger(14), Hayden(13), Piper(11), and Eli(9) who attend Whitehouse schools.
