II. Roll call

The following persons were present: Andie Manzanares, Susan Lumley, Lisa Lucero, Vicki Hutchison, Rhonda Gardner, Jennifer Cintas, Rosemary Casados and Laura Cooley

III. Principal Update – Susan Lumley

- a) Things are going well. This week Acoustic Americana has a performance at the Eldorado Performance Space. Friday, December 11th from 7-9pm.
- b) The Lottery Open House was a success and there are lots of students shadowing at ATC these days.
- c) The basketball season is in high gear and they're doing a good job with fundraising. They had a successful candle fundraiser.
- d) ATC received a $4000 donation for the science lab from the Wampler Family. Another supporter, a retired physicist, who has a tremendous lab, is donating approximately $6,000 worth of equipment.
- e) Lots of teacher requests are being filled through Donor's Choose.
- f) ATC has a new Business Manager, Pam, who is also an attorney.

IV. Student Council Update – Jennifer Cintas

- a) The students, particularly the 10th graders, are stressed about upcoming finals, which begin Monday.
- b) Student Council is wondering what their role is in Light up the Night – this Thursday. Andie says they can help decorate prior to the event.
- c) Student Council is selling snowflake grams.
- d) Student Council will prepare posters on how to deal with Finals stress on “Stress Day” this Friday.
- e) Winter Formal, now named the Yule Ball, has been moved to February 13.

VI. PTSC Update – Andie

- f) Farolito Sales –Each College Crew class who sells a minimum of 35 dozen bags will get $250 from the PTSC for classroom supplies. There will be a pizza party for the crew class from each grade who sells the most bags. Susan Lumley has been visiting classes to encourage participation.

Students will be gathering to make farolitos from 4-6pm on December 17th. Andie is trying to get pizza donated for those who help. If she cannot get a donation the PTSC approved a motion to purchase pizzas for the students who are helping. The National Honor Societies and Dance Committee will be helping.

- g) Open House for Lottery Applicants – PTSC raised $150.
- h) Light Up the Night. Thursday, December 10th at 5:30. PTSC will be selling food and they will have a basket raffle.
