Hindsight 2020

A farewell performance for the AAHS Auditorium

You're invited to join for one last farewell performance for the AAHS Auditorium on Saturday, May 30, 2020. Hindsight 2020 will take the audience through the 45 year history of shows performed in the current auditorium. This cabaret-style show will feature solos and duets/small group numbers from over the years. Two full group numbers – one opening number featuring all alumni and one closing number combining alumni and current the current AAHS cast of this year's musical Joseph will also be done. AAHS alumni who were part of past shows, including tech crew members, are invited to participate.

The construction of the new B-building will see a new auditorium with a second floor balcony that will seat approximately 1,200 people. The building is slated to open fall of 2020. The auditorium will feature a full theatrical stage with a fly and backstage wings as well as state-of-the-art lighting and sound. The current B-building will be raised with the opening of the new building.

Don't miss out on your chance to be part of this farewell performance. Registration deadline is September 15.
