

CROSSROADS

Prevention is the first line of defense against juvenile crime.

WHAT IS CROSSROADS?

CROSSROADS involves a spectrum of interventions tailored to the needs of the individual youth and his or her family. The program's primary focus is to effectively address the needs of pre-delinquent youth, ages 10-18 and their families, in an effort to prevent escalation of behavior to the juvenile justice system.

⇒ Driving Goals:

- Increase School Performance
- Decrease Criminal Activity
- Improve Attitude and Behaviors
- Decrease Aggression
- Improve Relationships
- Improve Coping Skills
- Decrease Substance Abuse

⇒ Offered Services:

- Free Counseling
- Referrals to Community Resources
- Skill Building Techniques

Contact Information:

Bruce Jones, Social Worker Supervisor – Office: 209.468.8230, Cell: 209.762.0023
Bethany Porter – Office: 209.468.8252, Cell: 209.636.9329
Roxanne Newsome – Office: 209.468.8315, Cell: 209.762.0025
Janet Posada – Office: 209.468.8399, Cell: 209.762.0024
Anthea Lamzon – Office: 209.468.3244
Shundel Graves – Office: 209.468.4180, Cell: 209.401.9105
24 S. Hunter Street, Room #300
Stockton, CA 95202