

News You Can Use from the Principal

October 23, 2018

Here we are at the last full week of October. Time has really flown by, and we're having a great year so far. Lots of learning is going on, and excitement is growing as the holiday season kicks in.

- Weekly Mass is at 9:50 Thursday, and it's a regular uniform day. Mass next week will be a Holy Day of Obligation: The Feast of All Saints. Dress uniform will be required.
- Today is our 2nd annual Trunk or Treat, and we'll have more trunks than ever! Most of our teams and clubs have organized a trunk and are looking forward to handing out candy and having some fun with the Trick or Treaters. Bring the tiny people in your lives. They'll have a big time!
- Next Wednesday is Halloween. We'll have our annual Scary for Carrie fundraiser. Students bring $3 and wear your favorite costume. Did you see the segment on Carrie on BNN last Friday? Click here to watch.
- Do you follow St. Joe on Facebook and Twitter? Stay current with all the latest happenings on campus! Twitter: @StJoeMadison
- Open House is November 11 at 2 pm. Invite families you think would be great Bruins. If everyone brings one family, our Bruin family grows!
- Will you help with cleaning up the Rosary garden and a few areas around campus? Saturday, November 10 is Bruin Clean Up Day. Meet us here at 8 am. We'll have donuts and coffee to start your day.
- Semester exam schedules are in the back of the Handbook. All students must be present for their study hall and exams unless there's a doctor's excuse of illness. No exams are given to individuals early.
- The December early release day has been moved from 12/5 to 12/12.
- Service hours: half of the yearly requirement should be completed, submitted and verified through x2vol by December 1. Please see the service board in the administration building for many opportunities.
- Uniform reminder: Only St. Joe outerwear is to be worn on campus. Click here to order a St. Joe sweatshirt. TC's carries St. Joe jackets and fleeces.

God bless,
Mrs. Kinsey
