

Lady Eagles Basketball Tryouts

The Lady Eagle Basketball Club is a local AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) affiliated basketball program. The purpose of the organization is to provide a competitive basketball program for girls in grades 4th through 8th that live in the local community.

Attention 4th to 8th Grade Girls!

The LEBC mission is to provide players the opportunity to develop their overall game and increase their self-confidence. The coaches will work closely with your girls to achieve this mission by creating an environment for athletes to learn, improve skills, build character and compete against the best teams and athletes in the region. The season will be comprised of two practices per week and games scheduled during the months of January - March.
