Vicksburg Catholic School announces new Administration

(Vicksburg, MS) - Vicksburg Catholic School proudly announces the promotions of Karla McHan to St. Aloysius Principal, beginning 2019 - 2020 and Lori Tzotzolas to Director of the VCS Early Learning Center when it opens in fall 2019. Karla is a Vicksburg native. She graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Education degree from Mississippi College and a Master of Art in Educational Leadership degree from William Carey. She has been a classroom teacher and lead teacher for 22 years for the Vicksburg Warren School District and at St Aloysius for 2 years. Beginning fall 2018, Karla will serve as Assistant Principal to Dr. Virgil Strickland, current principal of St Aloysius. She will step into the role of principal for school year, 2019 – 2020. Karla is married to David McHan, also from Vicksburg. They have 3 children, Connor, 26, Brian, 20, and Ella, 17. They attend St Michaels Catholic Church of Vicksburg.

Lori Tzotzolas, also a native of Vicksburg, graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Education degree from Mississippi State University and a Master of Education in Administration and Supervision, with an endorsement in Catholic School Leadership, from Marymount University. Lori was a classroom teacher for seven years with the Vicksburg Warren School District and has spent the last seventeen years as a classroom and lead teacher with Vicksburg Catholic School, at St Francis Xavier. Beginning Fall 2018, Lori will work closely with the VCS Development Office in effort to continue to raise funds for the Early Learning Center. She will also work with Catholic Diocese, the project architect, and the Department of Health to ensure the VCS Early Learning Center meets operational criteria for projected opening in fall 2019. Lori is married to Lester Tzotzolas of Vicksburg. They have two children, VCS Alumni, George, 20, and Alexandra, 18. They attend St George Orthodox Church of Vicksburg.
