

USS Midway MUSEUM

An imaginary crew is primed and ready to take your students on an amazing educational tour of the USS Midway! Come aboard and visit 40 different stops around Midway and learn how this immense ship operates. This Tour is designed to explain the “science behind the machine” and give you a glimpse of what it was like to live and work with 4,500 other sailors in the middle of the ocean.

Self-Guided Audio Tour (optional) is available and can be up to 6hrs to see and hear everything. You are welcome to enjoy touring the ship, eat at the Café (for purchased food only) or go outside of the Midway to picnic. Get stamped at any time and you can return to the Midway up to 4:00p.m. There is a free movie “Battle of Midway” appropriate for Middle & High School students. There are simulators on board for additional costs.

Directions

The USS Midway Museum is located alongside Navy Pier.
910 North Harbor Drive, San Diego, California, 92101, View Map

Parking

There are more than 300 spaces alongside Midway on Navy Pier (owned and operated by the Port of San Diego) for vehicles only. Parking rates are generally between $10 – $20 subject to change at the discretion of Ace Parking and the Port of San Diego.

Nearby Parking

Click here to learn more about surrounding parking options. Metered spaces are available on city streets ($1.25 per hour with a 2-hour limit). Downtown San Diego features more than 50,000 parking spaces. Some are within walking distance of the USS Midway Museum. Many are a short Peditaxi or taxi ride away.

Tour Parking

Vehicles over 18 feet long are not allowed to park on Navy Pier. The closest large-vehicle parking is in metered spaces along Pacific Coast Highway. Front-row handicapped parking spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Public Transportation

The Santa Fe Train Depot and MTS trolley station are a short 5-minute walk to the USS Midway. The Museum is easily accessible by train, coaster and trolley!

CHAPERONE and STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to provide a quality experience for both you and our general public guests, please review the following Code of Conduct with the students you chaperone.

1. STUDENTS NEED TO STAY WITH THEIR CHAPERONES.
2. Chaperones are responsible for the behavior of the students in their group.
3. Students found to be without supervision will be escorted to the exit. The group leader will be called and the group will be asked to depart.
4. PLEASE WALK AT ALL TIMES.
5. THERE ARE NO PLACES TO STORE/EAT LUNCHES ON BOARD. There are park areas close by.
6. The tables and chairs at the Fantail Café are only for guests that are purchasing food items from the café. This area cannot be used as a gathering area and no sack lunches are allowed at the tables.
7. Please remember that you are visiting an historic museum, be respectful of museum property, and maintain appropriate behavior at all times.
