Headmaster's Thoughts

Academy Family,

I hope this copy of the Acclamation finds you and your family doing well. I want to encourage all of you as we move through this difficult time. Our Academy staff and faculty have done an amazing job trying to maintain a learning environment for our students. This has unfortunately put a burden on parents to assist their students at home. We often speak of Kingdom Education philosophy, which sees the home, church, and school as a partnership engaged in the training and education of children. That partnership has been tested in a new way during these days.

The learning format, including various platforms, varies widely from kindergarten to high school. In a general way that applies to all, I want to encourage you to make sure your student is engaged in Academy learning activities. It is imperative that you read your emails from teachers carefully. We have been further adversely affected in our communication by the fact our server went down last Thursday. We should have that corrected today.

The Academy administration is communicating daily as we monitor information put out by CDC, ADPH, ADE, and AHSAA. I know that is a lot of acronyms, but trust me, we are listening to the right people. As we move forward we are thinking two weeks ahead, planning one week ahead, and acting one day at a time. Everyone wants to know what we will do after spring break, when will we be back in class, will we have graduation, spring formal, and the list could go on. So think with us, using the 14 - 7 - 1 day format. Today is Monday, so 14 days out is the first day back from spring break. While we are thinking about that week, no decisions are made yet. 7 days out is the first Monday of spring break. The plan is, take a break from school. One day out is tomorrow. The decision for this week is online learning continues through Friday.

I hope that helps you to think with us and understand the process we are using to move ahead. No decisions have been made about any event or schedule past spring break. You will be notified when decisions have been made. Thank you from our teachers and staff for your dedication to helping us continue learning. We are blessed at the Academy to be able to lessen the impact this event is having on your student's education. Thank you for being wonderful partners.

Together,
Jerry Reeder
